

I. International Symposium on Multilingualism

Creating Tolerance in a Globalized World

11th of November 2017
Atrium ZRC SAZU

The Slovenian-Portuguese Friends Association is organizing, in cooperation with the Slovenian PEN Center the I. International Symposium on Multilingualism, Ljubljana 2017. The Symposium is financially supported by the Camões Institute, the Portuguese Embassy in Austria and the Slovenian Academy of Sciences and Arts (ZRC SAZU), and has the support of Sardinha magazine. The welcome honors will be made by His Excellency the Ambassador of the Republic of Brazil to Slovenia, Mr. Renato Mosca de Souza. The event will be brightened by the musical genius of the Portuguese Eduardo Raon.

The I. International Symposium on Multilingualism emerges as a means of education, elucidation, tolerance, raising society's awareness of the advantages of multilingualism and the challenges it imposes, and it proposes to educate parents about the education of multilingual children. Moreover, it aims at promoting the social integration of displaced families, a pertinently current theme.
